Edna is the new maid and cook for a pair of newlyweds. She serves breakfast one morning when hubby has the fireplace grate before him so as to protect his features from fast travelling crockery.

Wifie leaves a note telling Hubby that she is going home to mother. Hubby receives a wire from his folks, telling him that they are to arrive shortly, for a visit. Hubby hops home, sees Wifie's note, and makes the cook, who is making love to her iceman sweetie, promise to pose as his Missis.

Wifie misses her train and returns. The iceman, seeing his sweetie kiss hubby, calls hubby into the kitchen and gives him a black eye. Wifie enters through the back door and is stopped by the iceman. She dresses as the maid, just for a lark, and serves the family, but not until she pours ice cream down the cook's back.

The boys slip out into the back yard and sleep on the ground, using logs for pillows. In the morning everything is revealed and the iceman and Edna are happily married.
